JAPANESE NOW ENJOYING BOOM, SPEAKER SAYS

TOTALITARIANISM IS ONLY A NEW ADVENTURE FOR THEM & WONT LAST

CENTERVILLE — There can be no affinity between the German and Japanese mind notwithstanding resent day military alliances, it was indicated by Albion Ross, foreign editor of the San Frannisco Chronicle, who spoke Monday evening before a good-sized audience at the public forum held in the Washington High school auditorium.

The German mind runs methodically, one, two, three, four, five, he illustrated with his fingers, while the Japanese mind, always seeking something novel in political styles, runs one, two then flies off with a tangential "zip". His illustration made everyone laugh.

In 1850 the nation practiced Shogunate isolation, after 1880 they attempted the democratic method of government; now totalitarianism is the latest style, which they will wear as long as it remains popular.

Unknown civilians behind the scenes still rule the country, ascountable only to the emperor, rather than the parliamentary diet or the reigning military dynasty.

—Long Way To Go

Continuing his subject, the Oriental Situation Today, the speaker, who had a humorous style of delivery said Japan still has a long way to go in its praiseworthy effort to achieve its destiny and its place in the sun of nations. The Chinese war they now know was a mistake. It was the "wrong" war. So now their eyes are turned to expansion southward. The raw materials they sought in China were not there: the Chinese had already exploited them. But there is lots of much needed rubber and tin in Indo China. What matter if the Japanese to take Indo China? They have to secure resources somewhere.

The speaker ultimately expects the Philippines to become a Japanese possession. The Filipinos are accustomed to being administered by another power, and with the withdrawal of the United States in 1946 Japan will step in, if not before.

—Boom In Japan

Mr. Ross was a correspondent for his paper in Berlin from 1931 to 1938. He returned here in January from a second trip to Japan. The touted "financial morass" which is supposed to exist in Germany and Japan certainly does not exist in Japan. Their continuing armament manufactures have put money in the pockets of middle class workers who never had money before. Places of amusement in Japan are now crowded, the best hotels are full of prospering Japanese businessmen, street cars and trains are crowded with natives enjoying themselves. Japan is enjoying an industrial boom.

The state of the Chinese peasant class is always the same, whether under Japanese or Chinese govern ment: this class is always poor and always in debt. It lives and dies under these conditions. The Japanese war is turning China from an agricultural into an industrial nation. Its businessmen are twice as shrewd as the Japaese and a quarter again as clever as the Anglo-Saxons, including ourselves he said.

The Japanese fall down in the quality of their manufactures. For example a suit made in Japan is a Japanese imitation of a German imitation of tthe real thing. Japanese kimonas fall to pieces when they are rained upon. Even Japanese rice is now adulterated with barley and poorer grades of the national staple.

—No Rationing There

Unlike Germany, neither clothing nor food is rationed in Japan. If you bought an overcoat in Germany today you'd have to wait a year before your ration card allowed you to buy anything else. In Japan you can buy as much of anything as you want, and you can eat yourself sick on the quanti ties of foodstuffs available there.

There is a serious shortage of charcoal there, which aproaches a national calamity. The gasoline shortage, however, does not affect the common people, because they have never owned automobiles, which are only for officials and the well-to-do.

The conflict in government there now is between civil and military leaders, neither of which accepts the nazi idea of totalitarianism. Premier Konoye acts as a check on the war party; if he goes down the chances of war with Japan are good. The Japanese mind looks up to England and America as the ruling nations and always has. They have a wholesome respect for Uncle Sam's might and will avoid trouble with us if they possibly can. Meantime the Japanese fleet is a formidable force to take into consideration.

—Will Outstrip Japan

When China's renascence as a manufacturing nation gets into stride the Chinese will make Japan a second rate nation. The Chinese produce genuine articles while the Japanese are satisfied to make imitations.

If the United States is satisfied to fight this war "to the last Englishman" why not include "to the last Chinaman" too, as it only costs 3c a day to maintain a Chinaman and Chinamen are so much cheaper, he finished facetiously.

The speaker answered questions from the floor for half an hour, following which Forum Leader Jack Rees conducted a local forum for an hour.

Julian Arnold, a former foreign attache will speak here on May 12 on the subject, Why We Must Act in the Orient Now, which will close the spring forum series, Mr. Rees announced.

MICKIE SAYS—

APPLY FOR EXEMPTION

Veterans of the last war, now residing in Washington Township, who feel they are entitled to property exemption from county taxes under the California Veterans Act should contact Marston Dassel, deputy-assessor for Washington Township, as soon as possible. Dassel lives south of Niles at the intersection of the Centerville-Mission highway.

STEEL COMPANY RECEIVES LARGE DEFENSE ORDERS

The Pacific States Steel Corporation, recently awarded several million dollars worth of national defense contracts, is installing two new melting furnaces to take care of the increased demand for steel output, according to William G. Gilmore, member of the corporation board. Confirmation of the awards came from his associate, Joseph Eastward Jr. in Washington D. C.

Always working 24 hours per day, production is going to have to be stepped up in order to produce 150,000 tons of alloy per year, and the expected increase in employment will increase the demand for houses for rent not only in Niles and Washington Township, but Throughout the southern end of Alameda County, it is anticipated.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP SOFTBALL SEASON FOR 1941 GETS UNDER WAY WITH OPENER ON MAY 16

Softball fans throughout Alameda County are requested and urged to encircle May 16 on their calendar, the date being the opening of the softball park for 1941 at the Centerville High school grounds, and also to encircle May 19, the date being the opening of the Washington Township Softball league. This league, which is composed of eleven teams from various towns in the township, is to continue until the latter part of August. The first week of league games will be published as soon as the schedules are drawn up.

The policy of the Softball Association, with Al Silveria heading the group of officers, is a non-profit organization, and is being operated for the enjoyment of the softball fans in this vicinty, for the enjoyment and exercise for the players, and operates from a small paid admission fee received from the fans. If there is a profit after deducting all expenses at the end of the season, the fund is set aside for next year according to Albert Silveria.

Some of the improvements made at the grounds during the last few months follow:

The field itself has been improved, which will be an aid to the players; a roof has been put on the grandstand, which will please the fans, who will be pleased to hear the announcer speak more clearly and loudly, as two new horns have been added to the loud speaker system; a postal telegraph electric clock has been installed, which will be an aid to the umpire in calling games exceeding their time limit.

Some of the new teams receiving new uniforms are: Occidental of Irvington, with blue and gold jockey satin uniforms; Knights of Columbus with red and white uniforms and the Silver Dollar.

While waiting for the opening of the league, the teams have wasted no time in getting into shape. In practice games last week, the Occidental club defeated a San Francisco team by a score of 9 to 2; Kraftile and the Decoto Boosters Club played an 8 to 8 tie game; and the County Employees of Niles and the Native Sons of Centerville played 15 innings with the final score reading 14 to 14. The Westvaco team of Newark is scheduled to play the Native Sons of Centerville at the High School grounds, Sunday morning.

The winner of the league this year will be determined as in the past by having the four top teams battle it out until a champion emerges.

TWO MEN DIE, ONE MANGLED IN TRAIN-CAR CRASH

ALVARADO — Two Japanese were killed and a white man was critically injured Saturday morning when their automobile collided with a Southern Pacific freight train at Hall station, two miles south of here on the Alvarado-Centerville highway.

The Japanese who were killed were James J. Nakano, 22, a draft registrant from Redwood City, and Nobuyoski Ogata, 22 of San Leandro. The driver of the car, John Barrosa, 35 of Hayward was taken to an Oakland hospital in a critical condition, suffering from scalp lacerations, fractures of the right elbow, lacerations of the right arm and possible internal injuries.

The accident happened when the automobile crashed sideways into one of the cars of the freight train, which was engaged in switching at the time.

DEFENSE BONDS NOW ON SALE AT POSTOFFICES

Defense bonds of several types and denominations went on sale this week at all United States Post offices. The smallest bonds are in denominations of $25, cost 18.75 cash and mature in ten years to face value. They bear 2.9 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually. These bonds are registered and are not transferable.

These bonds are redeemable at any time after 60 days from date of bond. They are also issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, and only $5,000 worth can be purchased by any one person in one year. Other types of bonds may be purchased in larger quantities at federal reserve banks.

For salaried persons of small means, who wish to do their bit toward participating in the government's defense efforts, postoffices sell postal savings stamps in 10c, 25c, 50c, $1 and $5 denominations. When sufficient of these stamps are accumulated to make $18.75, they may be turned in at the postoffice for a $25 bond.

Here is a chance for even the poorest of us to do our part.

WATER DEPARTMENT AGREES TO NEED OF NILES BEAUTIFICATION

The San Francisco Water Department admits the need for beautification of the property at the south entrance of Niles, according to a letter read at Monday's luncheon meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce held in the City of Florence Restaurant.

Secretary A. J. Petsche has invited A. S. Cheseborough, superintendent of the agricultural division of the San Francisco department to attend a meeting of the Niles Chamber at an early date, then to go over the situation here in person. It was suggested some mention be made of securing land for the proposed Niles Canyon State Park while he is here.

Other good news was revealed when Vice President E. E. Dias announced that H. F. Harold of Decoto, a member of the engineering department of the Southern Pacific Railway company, had told him that the county engineer's plan for a flood drainage project across the S. P. tracks through Niles, had been forwarded to the San Francisco office with a recommendation for approval.

A year's membership for Joe Ferry, Niles barber was brought in by Robert Blacow. Dias and Petsche reported on their attendance last Thursday at a luncheon of the State Chamber of Commerce held at the Hotel Oakland.

SHOWS NEW LIGHTS

MISSION SAN JOSE — A feature of the Schools Week open house being held this week by the Mission San Jose Grammar school is the first showing of the fluorescent lights installed but a few weeks ago in the eighth grade room. Although costing a little more to install than ordinary lighting their power consumption is much less, according to Principal E. B. Hodges, who says much better results are obtained from their use. The entire school may be equipped with this new type lighting, he indicates.

CAMPORETTE POSTPONED

Through inability to secure the facilities desired at Bonita Park near Sunol, the Township camporette planned for Boy Scouts for thisweekend has been postponed one week to May 10 and 11, Field Executive W. T. Lindsay advises this newspaper. As the second weekend is Mother's Day, a special observance of the event will be made at the Camporette.

QUARESMA HEADS NILES ROTARY CLUB; DINE AT SCHOOL

Richard G. Shaler, of the Griffin Chemical company spoke on Some of the New Synthetic Materials before the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Niles Rotary club held at the Hotel Belvoir. E. G. Glassbrook was chairman of the day.

Last Thursday's luncheon meeting was not held, as the club went in a body to Washington High school to enjoy a pre-Public Schools Week dinner served in the cafeteria there.

E. A. Quaresma, Irvington attorney, was elected president of the Niles Rotary Club at a recent meeting of the board of directors at Hotel Belvoir last week. He succeeds George Smith of Decoto.

Other officers are Ed Enos, secretary and George Bonde, treasurer, both of Niles. Directors are George Stratton and L. R. Burdick of Newark and the retiring president. Enos and Smith were elected delegates to the district conference to be held in Sacramento, May 11 12 and 13. Dr. T. C. Wilson, Quaresma and E. F. Glassbrook will also attend.

NEW OPERATOR AT EAGLE STATION STRICKEN SUNDAY

Tragedy struck the attractive new Golden Eagle service station opposite The Register office in Niles, when on Sunday afternoon the new magager, A. Carlsen, who had been in charge only since the day before, was stricken with paralysis while working on a tire change during the warmth of Sunday afternoon.

He was treated by Dr. E. C. Grau and was then taken to a hospital. The newcomer, a single man, had just come down from Santa Rosa, where he had been a chicken rancher. A temporary operator is in charge, pending the outcome of Carlsen's condition.

The former Gilmore station had just been repainted late last week in attractive white and yellow colors of the Golden Eagle gasoline company, who, according to report, have taken a ten year lease on that corner. They are offering high-test gasoline at attractive prices and represent the first Golden Eagle station in this vicinity.

ATTENTION CITIZENS OF THE TOWNSHIP!

By Audrie Silva

CENTERVILLE — The Firemen of the Centerville Department would like to call to the attention of its citizens the danger of following the Fire truck too closely when a fire has been reported, also when reporting a fire do not give the fire signal and then vanish. When reporting a fire wait until the firemen have arrived and then direct them to the fire. Many valuable minutes are lost when the Firemen do not know where the fire may be. If could be your home

If you live in a lane or street off the main highway then stand where you will be noticed and can direct the firemen to the whereabouts of the fire. Help to save valuable time by cooperating.

SO SORRY!

A mechanical breakdown Tuesday afternoon cost us the use of our linotype all afternoon, which has seriously cut into our ability to get all the correspondence into type this week. We have used a little correspondence from each community this week, and anticipate being back on regular schedule next issue. —The editor.

DECOTO GROUP ENJOYS PROGRAM AT WALKER HOME

DECOTO — The Decoto Social Group met Saturday evening, April 19 at the Walker sunroom. The members presented an informal program which was so much enjoyed that it was decided to make it a regular feature in the future.

Reading were given by Ethel Avilla, Peggy Whipple, Larry Clark and also by Frances Mara who contributed an excellent original poem. Tony Costa presented a baffling sleight of hand trick. After singing of old songs by the group, Mr. Neil Norman, dressed in Negro costume gave an act in which he manipulated a tiny dancing figure with such dexterity that the footwork of the little "coon" was delightful to watch and brought down the house. The first edition of the Group's official newspaper, "The Cheerful Liar" was read and applauded vigorously.

The program closed with a kitchen shower of articles to be used in serving of the sunroom activities, presented to Mr. and Mrs. Walker. This was very much appreciated, not only as a convenient and useful gift but also for the generous and friendly spirit which prompted it.

After an old-fashioned box luncheon dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

DR. S. ORMOND

We wish to call your attention to the location of Dr. S. Ormond Schafer Bldg, Hayward, telephone 2511. Here is to be found the last word on treatment of sore, tired and aching feet, and Dr. Ormond has both knowledge and equipment for administering this often-needed relief. We know that if the foundation of any structure is not perfect, there is trouble. How much more true it is when the foundation of the human body is imperfect.

Everyone has, at one time or another, felt completely out of tune with the world; cross, ill-tempered and quarrelsome with those about him, all because of his feet. This should not be, because nature has given us proper equipment with which to carry on. But man's abuse of his feet, through the wearing of improperly fitted shoes, from childhood to adult age has circumvented all the efforts of nature. If one examines the feet of a young child, or those of elderly semi-civilized peoples, he will note that they have no foot trouble. This, of course, is due to the fact that the feet have been allowed to develop as they were intended.

In this modern age when so many people sacrafice comfort for the sake of following the latest style in footwear, there is a rapidly increasing number of men and women laying the foundation of many future bodily ills. This can be prevented by a visit to Dr. ORMOND and following his prescribed treatment. An ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. Why go through life with aching feet when remedy is so near at hand? —adv.

They were enroute home, over San Mateo bridge, returning from San Francisco, where Dr. Paul attended the Annual gatherings of the R. A. Chapter and of the Royal and Select Masters. They spent a busy two hours in a tour of the buildings. In parting the Doctor remarked that he'd "have lots of good t hings to tell San lots of good things to tell San received a thrill when Supt. Eubank showed pictures of the scene on the hill-top for the corner stone laying, October 4, 1898, when Thomas Flint Jr. was Grand Master. George Peabody was Grand Marshall. Mrs. Paul recalled that her father was present, and thinks he was a member of Reading Lodge, No. 254, Redding.

Edward Goodrich, Fresno Lodge No. 247, has returned from his annual vacation, spent with relatives and friends in Oakland and San Francisco. Mr. Goodrich, who came to the Home in 1931, is the man responsible for transferring the food three times daily, from the kitchen to the hospital. Only once in his record of nine years of service has he failed to get the eats to the hospital on time, a record of which he may well be proud.

A recent arrival in the Home is "Spot", an intelligent little fox terrier. Having been, as you might say, a member of the family of Supt. Eubank for seven years, Spot was easily vouched for by the new executive. Spot's quarters are in the basement of the North Wing. He's making a host of friends.

Incidently the other Home dog Mascot (as yet unnamed) has found a litter of nine tiny babies-not much longer than a full sized sausage. Removal by death and otherwise has reduced the number to four at this writing. Chef Neeley is the caretaker and the kennel is the basement of the Temple.

Hundreds of people in touch for the past 20 years with the efficient work of Miss Esther Payne, head nurse at the Home hospital, will be pleased to know she will continue in this line of humanitarian endeavor under the administration of Supt. Eubank. Miss Payne comes of pioneer Puritan stock, being a New Englander, a native of New Hampshire. During the World War Miss Payne performed excellent service in the army unit of the Red Cross.

In her duties at the hospital she will have the important aid of Mrs Margaret Nelson of Niles who will fill the position of assistand to the head nurse made vacant by the appointment of Mrs. Virginia Lord as Matron, succeeding Mrs. Minnie Richardson. Employed as a nurse at the Home hospital for several years Mrs. Nelson is familiar with the work. With the line-up of Matron, head nurse and assistant to the head nurse it is believed the needs of the hospital will be well taken care of.

RETURN OF RELIEF TO COUNTIES WOULD YIELD CUT IN TAXES

SACRAMENTO — Citizens of California would have had $6,811,382 to spend just as they desired, rather than for taxes, had relief been administered by the counties in 1940.

That was the declaration of Senator John Phillips of Banning and Assemblywoman Jeanette E. Daley of San Diego today and to prove their point they released tabulations to show that taxpayers in every county, every community would have shared in the saving.

The computations were announced along with the report of the conference committee which has consolidated the positions of the Senate and the Assembly in adopting an act to return relief management to the counties.

GORRIE & YEOMAN FEATURE ALBERS FEEDS

The Gorrie and Yeoman Feed Company of Hayward are well and favorably known in this territory. They operate two units at Hayward, the big warehouse at C and Soto streets where large stocks of Albers Feeds, Grains, Hay, Fuel, Poultry and Garden Supplies are sold and the retail store at 512 Main street where similar stocks are carried for the convenience of uptown shoppers. This firm also buys eggs from its customers thus offering a complete service to the trade.

Gorrie and Yeoman feature Albers Proven Feeds because they know that this famous feed is subjected to both laboratory and actual flock tests before it is offered to the trade. Years of actual research and scientific development are thus made available in every bag of this Proven feed. To the producer this means more eggs, healthier sturdier flocks, more milk, better calves, large healthy litters of rabbits, better, healthier live stock of all kinds.

In this review we are pleased to compliment the Gorrie and Yeoman Feed Co. and heartily recommend them to our readers. Their products are reliable, their prices are fair and their service is unexcelled. -adv.

JIMMIE AND NONIE

Undoubtedly most readers of this publication are familiar with one of the most popular auto courts and entertainment spots in this territory, namely, Jimmie and Nonie's. Here are found comfortable and clean tourist cabins and all kinds of tourists supplies.

Dancing parties are held here that are unexcelled — delicious lunches topped off by the finest of wines and liquors. This writer has spent many a happy evening at Jimmie & Nonie's and unhesitatingly recommends it to all our readers. One fact that impressed the writer was that no vulgarity or vociferousness on the part of the patrons are ever heard. While everyone seems to enjoy themselves, nothing is ever heard or seen that would not meet with the approval of the sternest parent.

Come in and spend your periods of relaxation at Jimmie and Nonie's located on 27427 Niles Road, telephone Hayward 3479. -adv.

NAVAL RESERVE OPENS RECRUITING IN MANY CLASSES

There are approximately 197,000 enlisted regulars in the navy today. In addition to building up the regular service the navy department announced today that it had opened recruiting in classes of the Naval Reserve that has heretofore been closed. For service during this emergency, enlistments in the Naval Reserve will be made for a period of four years of minority. Men will be enlisted as apprentice seamen for seamen and firemen rating yeomen, signalmen radiomen, machinist's mates, aviation mechanics and electricians. These men will be sent to the training stations for the regular recruit training period and if found qualified, upon completion, will be sent to schools located throughout the United States for the above specialties. If they are not qualified they will be available for general naval service.

Enlistments will be made between the ages of 17 and 36; however if a man is less than 21, he must obtain his parents or guardians consent. The same physical, for naval reserves will be used as mental and moral requirements now prevail for the regular naval service. Full details are available at all naval recruiting stations, See your local navy recruiter W. S. Smith, located at 453 Main street in Niles every Friday.

The bill for the return of relief to counties, if passed, will provide a saving of $369,084 to Alameda County taxpayers per year, or a reduction of 9c per $100 of assessed values, the report shows.

FAST FREIGHTERS — AND FASTER IDEAS

Officials in Washington have conceived the bright idea of building small, very fast cargo vessels, to run the gauntlet overseas ALONE. They will have a speed which will outdistance anything the nazis have afloat.

This means: no convoying by America and no committing of an overt act against the Germans. And there is America's "out".

A few bright ideas like this will win the war by out-smarting and out-maneuvering the most diabolical breed of supposed human beings the Lord has ever suffered to live on this earth — to continually raise hell for the rest of us.

The proposed vessels can be built in 60 days in quantity, and though they may carry only a thousand tons, their cargo will arrive in England safely, and quickly. Omitting armed convoy cuts down the delivery expense.

Returning empty, they can bring back to these shores speedily the stranded pilots who have to wait a long time in England after they have safely flown over the planes built in U. S. A. — now piling up in Canada because of slow-return of pilots.

* * * *

On this page in the issue of March 28 your editor made objection to the ponderous, slow, cumbersome convoy system which was archaic even in the last war. I went overseas then in a convoy of 16 troop and merchant vessels and the crossing took 11 days:: we all had to time ourselves to the slowest vessel which was a tramp-steamer.

Our escort consisted of one battle ship and two destroyers . . by day when we were on deck they were often so far away we would not see them for hours. A submarine could have struck and been off just as though we had no protectors.

At night all portholes (windows to you) were sealed. The vitiated air made most of the men sick. Many of them did not eat a meal during the entire eleven days. The blackout was enforced to keep the ships invisible, with not even the usual running lights showing at port and starboard.

Yet during my turn on deck as night sub watch I could see the radio equipment on our ship and on other ships sizzling with electricity as messages were sent from ship to ship. Thus making our rigid blackout (at the expense of the health of the troops) ineffectual.

* * * *

The nazis today are invariably successful because they thing out and plan in advance every detail of every operation. Then they execute it, according to plan.

Until Britain, and the United States can out-plot, out-plan, out-smart and out-general the damn nazis WITH IDEAS, England cant win. We have to do more than build munitions and spend money. We have to devise a cunning PLAN how to apply it, and Yankee ingenuity can do it.

The Balkan campaign, like Dunkuerke and Narvik, was the usual un-thought-out debacle. Just turning men loose to win victory by sheer brute strength wont work these days. Courageous men as fighting units are so much cannon fodder.

The British General Dill, with six weeks time to plan the inevitable, spent just an hour and a half with the Yugoslav army commander. There was no plan. The Yugoslavs did not have a single field radio, so in but two hours of nazi blitz a million brave Serbian soldiers were severed from any central command, and their resistance was dissipated.

Its a darn shame — the loss of fine lives and material for want of a central PLAN. — Now its a race for the new battle front in the Middle East, where the British have the tactical and numerical advantage, IF they dont wait for the advancing Huns to dig in — but blitz them FIRST.

AMERICA SHOULD ENTER THE WAR

By Rev. J. L. Webster,
Pastor of Washington Township Presbyterian Churches

The world is soft and malleable today. Governments, moral laws, civilizations, which we thought were permanent, are crumbling before our eyes. It is a day of revolution; and out of it will come a new world. But what kind of a world shall it be? And who shall control it?

Forces of evil have risen up to say, "We will build this new world and we will control it." Under the leadership of Hell and Hitler, they are moving on rapidly toward the fulfillment of their threat. They are determined to crush everything we cherish as Americans, everything we love as Christians. Men are in their prisons for no other crime than we are committing every Sunday — worshipping God as Christ and our fathers have taught us.

Democracy and Christianity go together. The Christ-taught principle that every man is precious in the sight of God, from the least eaen to the greatest, inevitably gives birth to democratic institutions. Crush Christianity and democracy will die. That is what totalitarianism is determined to do — to kill our Christianity and rob our world of freedom. Shall we let them do it?

As Americans and as Christians, I challenge you to stand up and say, "NO!"

America should be at Britain's side today in this struggle to preserve the freedom and ideals of the world. She is fighting our battle for us; and we deserve to be made slaves if we will not rise up and join her, with men as well as money.

If our country has a great resposibility to meet in this war, our church has a greater one — to turn the defeat, which both sides will suffer, into victory for all. It will take love to win that victory — a love that includes our enemies, no matter what their crimes have been. And only men who will stick to the cross of Christ can keep that love alive through the stress of war; men who stubbornly remember that, "While we were yet sinners Christ died for us." It will take faith — faith in a God who loves all men, but who refuses to free us from the responsibility of learning to live together. It will take hope to win that victory — hope that in the hour of deepest darkness will look up and see the stars.

Who shall furnish these essentials of victory to a wounded and bitter world? No one but the Church of Jesus Christ. This is our task. Let us study and work and pray that each of us may do our part. And let us bring together all the wisdom and courage we have that we may meet the God-given opportunity of this great day.

As Americans and as Christians let us say, "Free men shall build the new world: and Christ shall walk up and down in it as Savior and King."

NO PEACE WITH DEVILS

There are worse things than war. Cowardice cant provide security. Each new generation has to learn the hard war.

In the last war Wilson promised "peace at any price"; the Lusitania was sunk, public opinion was aroused, so we went to war.

Not to help England now, in every way, makes us "too proud to fight", another Wilsonian ideal which did not work.

The following poem carried me safely through the last war:

"Though love repine and reason chafe
"There comes a Voice without reply,
"T'were man's perdition to be safe
"When for the Truth he ought to die."

Pin it in your hat. You can offer yourself on the altar of Sacrifice: it is God who determines who shall die. Going to war doesn't mean death for everybody: it insures survivial of honor, the sine qua non, regarding which the devil's nazis know nothing.

* * * *

President Roosevelt last week classed Lindburgh with the copperhead colonels of the Civil War. A cooperhead is a kind of snake. Alas that Lindy, once a national hero, should prostitute his fighting manhood.

At a recent press conference the President recalled that there were appeasers at Valley Forge: those who said the Colonists could not win against the might of England.

Came then a forgotten man, a man of poverty and hunger, one Thomas Paine, who's "Age of Reason", read by General Washington by the light of flickering camp fires in Valley Forge inspired him and his men to fight on and win, — which they did.

* * * *

England "loses every battle except the last one", and the last one should be just around the corner, probably in the Middle East. It will be a page of glory in our history to help her win it, with our airplanes, ships, men and money.

America and the American heart and spirit know nothing about us: they have never set foot in this country: and it is sure they never will.

There is no perfect crime. The crime against humanity which Hitler has perpetrated upon 14 innocent nations in Europe will develop its Achilles heel: lack of oil, starvation; not enough nazi bayonets to keep down the spirit of revolt which seethes in the souls of suppressed nations over there.

No one inherited Caesar's toga, nor Napoleon's genius, nor Michael Angelo's talent nor Huey Long's disease, for genius is never transmittable. The forces of life never shape up twice the same way. And, by the large, that's a good thing.

The Japanese navy leaders are AGAINST participation with the axis. The military leaders are for it. "A nation divided against itself cannot stand." Japan does not want any part of the European war in the Orient. She's got more war there now of her own making than she can handle. What a costly and futile blunder the Chinese "adventure" has been.

It is Uncle Sam's turn now to roll up his sleeves, spit on his hands and start slugging. We have never lost a war yet, because the Christian God helped us found this nation, dedicated to Him in religious liberty, and it is still His country. "In God We Trust."

Recall Edward Everett Hale's inspiring poem:

"Breathes there the man with soul so dead

"Who never to himself hath said

"This is my own, my native land?" Etc. etc.

The suppressed European nations feel the same way about it, too. The nazis CAN be beaten and we can help do it.

God is willing!

OUR GREATEST WEALTH

By Col. Theodore Roosevelt

Vice President of the Boy Scouts of America

The forward march of our civilization is kept moving by our youth. Perhaps no country on earth is so blessed with its youth as is our country—America. While we have gained many advantages by our enterprise, our industry, our natural resources and our fearlessness, I am convinced that our real, our most genuine, and our greatest wealth is in our boys and girls.

There you have the premise on which the Boy Scouts of America works. It believes with a burning conviction that all the future holds for our country is in the hands of the boys and girls. That is why it stresses its character building and citizenship program; that is why it emphasizes the value of service to others; that is why it is so very careful in the selection of its leadership.

Those who come within the influence of Scouting are strengthened in soul and body and they become better citizens of the great republic for it. Where you see a Boy Scout you may be sure that he is dependable, upright,manly. The greater his numbers, the more secure our country will be!

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

By: Your Editor.

PERCENTAGE — Only three divisions, about 60,000 Anzacs aided their Greek allies in the recent Balkan campaign to inflict casualties on an estimated 250,000 nazis troops. Then the Anzacs withdrew safely. If annihilation of the enemy is the object, this makes good reading.

Correspondents at the scene say the nazi disregard for the lives of their soldiers is incredible. Wave after wave of smiling German youths walked over the bodies of their dead predecessors straight into the mouths of death. The carnage turned the stomachs even of the seasoned Anzac veterans.

In one action alone two entire divisions of nazis, totalling 22,000 men each were wiped out, with all their equipment, as completely as though the mountains had crushed them.

And this be the "glory" of war —1941 model. God save the rest of us!

CENSURE — Lindburgh, once national hero, has offered his resignation as a colonel in the air reserve, by means of a tart letter to the President. Lindy jacks up the President for infringing Lindy's right of free speech . . What Lindy spoke in favor of — American non-resistance — if carried out, would put an end to free speech, and to America, too.

In the front row of his audience, according to Walter Winchell, were known bundists, communists and other undesirables.

The right of free speech, as exercised these days by anybody, including Senator Wheeler, should be tempered with judgment and some appreciation of America's serious position should England be conquered.

Lindy did the decent thing in offering his resignation; prior to which our former national hero did the very un-decent thing of speaking against national defense and national security — and he a famous officer in the air corps reserve.

Billy Mitchell, the "stormy petrel" during and after the last war, got himself into the same kind of box by speaking out of turn.

COST — Postoffice boxholders throughout the nation this week received two beautifully printed booklets with special order envelope forms requesting the purchase by the public of United States saving bonds at the behest of Uncle Sam.

As there are 44,000 postoffices in the United States serving upwards of 50 million families, think of the job the government printing office had . . and think of the cost!

However, war is war and business is business — and the taxpayers have to pay the bill.

PER PUPIL COST AT HIGH SCHOOL SHOWS DECLINE

Current expenditures by the Washington Union high school district averaged $149.39 for each of the 699 pupils in average daily attendance in 1939-40, a decrease from the $154.86 per pupil spent for current purposes by the district in 1938-39, California Taxpayers' association stated today, following its study of the 175 larger high school districts in the State.

The $149.39 per pupil total current expenditure was lower than the median or midpoint expenditure of $158.38 for other four-year high schools teaching grades 9 to 12 in the same size group, the association found.

The district spent an average of $99.08 per pupil for teachers' salaries last year, compared with the median for similar districts of $97.62, the association stated. For other current expenditures, the district spent an average of $50.31, while the median expenditure for this purpose for similar districts was $61.67.

EDITOR VISITS TRAINING SCHOOL FOR ARMY CADETS

Over the weekend the editor of this newspaper had the opportunity of visiting and inspecting the new Tex Rankin flying school for army cadets situated in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley.

The big plant, on which $200,000 has already been spent, is situated midway between Tulare and Lindsay and now includes an administration building, one hangar, several barracks, a recreation center, big kitchen and messhall. Everything is brand new and the furnishings would do credit to a country club.

The undertaking is financed by private means and is one of 29 similar private schools where the army places its cadets for training. The government pays the private instructors so much for starting the young men out on a ten weeks course, after which they go to army operated basic schools for another 10 weeks training. After that they go to Randolph Field in Texas for their last ten weeks of training, emerging therefrom as second lieutenants with pay of $204 per month.

—$75 and Keep

The cadets get $75 per month and their "keep" while training, the entire course lasting 30 weeks. The Rankin school will have a capacity of 400 cadets when it reaches its capacity this fall and will employ 300 civilian instructors, the instructors receiving a minimum of $300 per month.

Surprisingly enough, Mr. Rankin said private schools could teach fliers at one-third the cost of army schools. Rankin is America's number one stunt flier and is a veteran pilot from the last war. At his invitation 67 member publishers of the San Joaquin Valley area of the California Newspaper Publishers association were the first persons to be served in the officers mess in the new messhall, where a sumptuous turkey dinner was served to them last Saturday night.

When the school is running to capacity five auxiliary fields will be developed nearby, because 300 planes, cadets and instructors cannot operate successfully from one field. His plant, when finished will represent an investment of $800,000 and will be the largest civilian flying school in the west.

—No Fatal Accidents

In 20 years as an instructor Mr. Rankin has never lost a student by death, or even by accident he said. He says Uncle Sam now has more cadets waiting for training than there are fields available at which to train them, but expects within six months the facilities will exceed the supply of young men from 20 to 27 years of age. When this situation is reached, he expects the government will waive its two years of college requirements for cadets.

The cadets' living quarters at the Rankin school "barracks" resemble a country club, with over-stuffed mattresses on the beds, private showers and baths, two-tone eucalyptus furniture and even private recreation quarters, separate from the mechanics and civilian employes.

The new field is situated in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley where snow-clad mountains now provide a beautiful background for growing grapes . . But wait until July when the hot weather hits, and the thermometer stands at 110 all day! I ought to know.

LEGISLATURE AIDS SECURING OF YOUR BIRTH CERTIFICATE

SACRAMENTO — Getting a defense industry job will be easier for thousands of persons as a result of the enactment by the Legislature of a measure which facilitates the obtaining of birth certificates.

Persons seeking employment in defense plants are required to furnish birth certificates, a requirement which has caused considerable difficulty because of the failure to keep such records a number of years ago.

The new act, adopted as an urgency measure both to speed defense work and to expand employment, provides that any person born in California who does not have a birth certificate may obtain one by court procedure. Marriage and death certificates may also be obtained by the same procedure.

WE ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF CANYON HEIGHTS
This tract is located on the former Frank E. Clarke Ranch, just east of the Clarke Bridge or the second bridge on the old Niles-Sunol Highway.
It is our contention that Niles must grow and expand and as industry creeps in from the North, and as both East and West are closed by gravel pits or railroads and steep hills and the South boundary is out for obvious reasons — then we feel Niles will take to the beautilul hills — and that in Niles Canyon. Few of us realize the health value of this wonderful, natural heritage, here we have a splendid outlook in all directions, Hills, the Stream, Highways, Railroads, this tract further is covered with Apricot and Almond trees, the roads are gravelled and as soon as convenient they will be paved. The lots are large and well planned through the assistance of the County Planning Commission. Federal Housing Loans can be secured as we have complied with all requirements.
These lots in Canyon Heights will be placed on the market at very low prices — but when construction takes place naturally we expect an advance in price — and this advance will belong to the early purchasers.
You will be astonished if you visit our tract—we have tried and we hope successfully to create wide, easily travelled roads. The Western Pacific Railroad has granted us a wide and safe crossing of the tracks at the rear of the Hill property, likewise the Ellsworth Company unselfishly granted us a strip of land to accomplish that end —safety and convenience.
Visit this beautiful tract that belongs to Niles, — here is view, health and climate.
We are in a position either to build for you or to advise you in the construction of your home.
This tract is limited to persons of the Caucasian race and the type of home must conform to a general plan for the benefit of all, so we have a lovely spot—others have told us so—restrictions for your protection and a demand for homes and rentals.
